

Ken Zajic

Ken is a retired registered professional engineer who earned both his BSE ('62) and MS ('65) degrees from The Johns Hopkins University.

A native of Baltimore, he moved, in 2004, to The Greens at Leisure World, where he became involved in governance of the condominium as a member of the board of Directors as well as several committees. He is a past president of The Greens, having served three years in that post.

He is currently an alternate member of the Leisure World Community Corporation Board of Directors. He has served on three standing advisory committees: Budget & Finance, Community Planning, and Energy Conservation, serving as chairman of the latter two. In addition, he was a member of a special committee which developed Leisure World's internal dispute resolution policy and process.
