Deferred Compensation Plan

Frequently asked questions about your plan.

Here are answers to questions you may have about the key features, benefits, and rules of your plan.

When can I enroll in the plan?

If you are an eligible newly hired employee of Montgomery County you will be automatically enrolled in the Deferred Compensation Plan (Plan) at a contribution rate of 1% of your regular earnings (excluding overtime).

If you do not wish to contribute to the Plan, you must change your contribution rate to 0% within the first 60 calendar days of your eligibility by logging on to NetBenefits® at <http://plan.fidelity.com/MCG>, or by calling the Fidelity Retirement Benefits Line at 1-800-343-0860.

If you do not make an investment election, your contributions will be invested in the SSgA Target Retirement Fund Account with the target retirement date closest to the year in which you turn age 65.

What is the Roth contribution option?

A Roth contribution to the Plan allows you to make after-tax contributions and receive any associated earnings tax free at distribution—as long as the distribution is a qualified one. A qualified distribution, is one that is taken at least five tax years after your first Roth contribution to this Plan and after you attained age 59½, or become disabled or die.

Through payroll deduction, you can contribute between 1% and 100% of your eligible pay as Roth contributions, on an after-tax basis, up to the annual IRS contribution limit.

How much can I contribute?

Through payroll deduction, you can contribute between 1% and 100% of your eligible pay on a before-tax basis, up to the annual IRS contribution limit.

Participants are allowed to mix and match pre and post tax contributions.

What is the IRS contribution limit?

You may contribute $17,500, the maximum IRS contribution limit in 2014, which applies to all contributions in all 457(b) plans in which you participate.

If you are age 50 and over, you can contribute an additional $5,500, which means you can contribute up to $23,000. If you turn age 50 during the calendar year, you can contribute the additional amount.

A participant may be eligible to utilize a “last 3 years” catch up during one or more of the last 3 years before normal retirement age (as defined in the retirement plan in which the participant participates). Eligibility depends upon any underutilized amount. Prior to completing the 3-year Catch-up Provision Form, please contact Jason Su, Fidelity’s onsite representative, at 240-777-8228 to discuss eligibility. If you are eligible for the 3-year Catch-Up, you may be able to contribute an additional $17,500 for an annual contribution amount of up to $35,000.

How do I designate my beneficiary?

If you have not already selected your beneficiaries, or if you have experienced a life changing event such as a marriage, divorce, birth of a child, or a death in the family, it’s time to review your beneficiary designations. To designate your beneficiary(ies), you must complete Montgomery County’s Deferred Compensation Beneficiary Designation/Change Form. These forms are provided during employee orientation and are

Principal invested is not guaranteed at any time, including at or after the fund's target date.

For those desiring the most investment flexibility and choice, the Plan offers a self-directed brokerage option, which gives you access to individual stocks and bonds as well as many other mutual funds. A complete description of the Plan's investment options and their performance, as well as planning tools to help you choose an appropriate mix, are available online at Fidelity NetBenefits®. All information related to the self-directed brokerage account offered in the RSP must be

This spectrum, with the exception of the Domestic Equity category, is based on Fidelity's analysis of the characteristics of the general investment categories of the investment options and not on the actual security holdings, which can change frequently. Investment options in the Domestic Equity category are based on the options' Morningstar categories as of 09/30/2014. Morningstar categories are based on a fund's style as measured by its underlying portfolio holdings over the past three years and may change at any time. These style calculations do not represent the investment options' objectives and do not predict the investment options' future styles. Investment options are listed in alphabetical order within each investment category. Risk associated with the investment options can vary significantly within each particular investment category, and the relative risk of categories may change under certain economic conditions. For a more complete discussion of risk associated with the mutual fund options, please read the prospectuses before making your investment decision. ▶ Fidelity BrokerageLink®

Fidelity BrokerageLink® combines the convenience of your workplace retirement plan with the additional flexibility of a brokerage account. It gives you expanded investment choices and the opportunity to more actively manage your retirement contributions. A self-directed brokerage account is not for everyone. If you are an investor who is willing to take on the potential for more risk and you are prepared to assume the responsibility of more closely monitoring this portion of your portfolio, it could be appropriate for you. However, if you do not feel comfortable actively managing a portfolio of options beyond those offered through your plan's standard investment options, then a self-directed brokerage account may not be appropriate for you. Additional fees apply to a brokerage account; please refer to the fact sheet and commission schedule for a complete listing of brokerage fees. Remember, it is always your responsibility to ensure that the options you select are consistent with your particular situation, including your goals, time horizon, and risk tolerance.

Fidelity® Strategic Real Return Fund

VRS Code: 01505

Fund Objective: Seeks real return consistent with reasonable investment risk.

Fund Strategy: Allocating the fund's assets among four general investment categories, using a neutral mix of approximately 30% inflation-protected debt securities, 25% floating-rate loans, 25% commodity-linked derivative instruments and related investments, and 20% REITs and other real estate related investments. Investing in domestic and foreign issuers. Analyzing a security's structural features and current pricing, its issuer's potential for success, and the credit, currency, and economic risks of the security and its issuer to select investments. Using fundamental analysis of factors such as each issuer's financial condition and industry position, as well as market and economic conditions, to select investments. Investing in Fidelity's central funds (specialized investment vehicles used by Fidelity funds to invest in particular security types or investment disciplines).

Fund Risk: Stock markets, particularly foreign markets, are volatile and can be affected by adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, or economic developments. Floating rate loans may not be fully collateralized and therefore may decline significantly in value. A floating rate loan may not be fully collateralized which may cause the loan to decline significantly in value. A floating rate loan is generally subject to restrictions on resale. Difficulty in selling a floating rate loan may result in a loss. Interest rate increases can cause the price of a debt security to decrease. Increases in real interest rates can cause the price of inflation-protected debt securities to decrease. Foreign securities are subject to interest rate, currency exchange rate, economic, and political risks. Changes in real estate values or economic downturns can have a significant negative effect on issuers in the real estate industry. Lower-quality bonds can be more volatile and have greater risk of default than higher-quality bonds. Commodity-linked investments can be more volatile and less liquid than the underlying instruments or measures and their value may be affected by the performance of the overall commodities baskets as well as weather, tax, and other regulatory developments. Leverage can increase market exposure and magnify investment risks.

Fund short term trading fees: This fund has a Short-term Redemption Fee of 0.75% for fee eligible shares held less than 60 days.

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking to invest in a fund that invests in both stocks and bonds.
- Someone who is seeking the potential both for income and for long-term share-price appreciation and who is willing to accept the volatility of the bond and stock markets.

Footnotes:

- A mutual fund registered under Fidelity Salem Street Trust, and managed by Fidelity Management & Research Company. This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.

Fidelity® Total Bond Fund

VRS Code: 00820

Fund Objective: Seeks a high level of current income.

Fund Strategy: Normally investing at least 80% of assets in debt securities of all types and repurchase agreements for those securities. Using the Barclays U.S. Universal Bond Index as a guide in allocating assets across the investment-grade, high yield, and emerging market asset classes. Investing up to 20% of assets in lower-quality debt securities. Managing the fund to have similar overall interest rate risk to the index. Investing in domestic and foreign issuers. Allocating assets across different asset classes, market sectors, and maturities. Analyzing the credit quality of the issuer, the issuer's potential for success, the credit, currency, and economic risks of the security and its issuer, security-specific features, current and potential future valuation, and trading opportunities to select investments. Engaging in transactions that have a leveraging effect on the fund, including investments in derivatives - such as swaps (interest rate, total return, and credit default), options, and futures contracts - and forward-settling securities, to adjust the fund's risk exposure. Investing in Fidelity's central funds (specialized investment vehicles used by Fidelity funds to invest in particular security types or investment disciplines).

Fund Risk: In general the bond market is volatile, and fixed income securities carry interest rate risk. (As interest rates rise, bond prices usually fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities.) Fixed income securities also carry inflation risk, liquidity risk, call risk and credit and default risks for both issuers and counterparties. Unlike individual bonds, most bond funds do not have a maturity date, so avoiding losses caused by price volatility by holding them until maturity is not possible. Lower-quality bonds can be more volatile and have greater risk of default than higher-quality bonds. Foreign securities are subject to interest rate, currency exchange rate, economic, and political risks, all of which are magnified in emerging markets. Leverage can increase market exposure and magnify investment risk.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking potential returns primarily in the form of interest dividends rather than through an increase in share price.
- Someone who is seeking to diversify an equity portfolio with a more conservative investment option.

Fidelity Management Trust Company, as investment manager and trustee of the Fidelity Group Trust for Employee Benefit Plans, has claimed an exemption from registration under the Commodity Exchange Act and is not subject to registration or regulation under the Act. At the time of purchase, all Contracts and securities purchased for the fund must satisfy the credit quality standards specified in the Declaration of Separate Fund.

Fund Risk: The Contracts and securities purchased for the fund are backed solely by the financial resources of the issuers of such Contracts and securities. An investment in the fund is not insured or guaranteed by the manager(s), the plan sponsor, the trustee, the FDIC, or any other government agency. The Contracts purchased by the fund permit the fund to account for the fixed income securities at book value (principal plus interest accrued to date). Through the use of book value accounting, there is no immediate recognition of investment gains and losses on the fund's securities. Instead, gains and losses are recognized over time by periodically adjusting the interest rate credited to the fund under the Contracts. However, while the fund seeks to preserve your principal investment, it is possible to lose money by investing in this fund. The Contracts provide for the payment of certain withdrawals and exchanges at book value during the terms of the Contracts. In order to maintain the Contract issuers' promise to pay such withdrawals and exchanges at book value, the Contracts subject the fund and its participants to certain restrictions. For example, withdrawals prompted by certain events (e.g., layoffs, early retirement windows, spin-offs, sale of a division, facility closings, plan terminations, partial plan terminations, changes in laws or regulations) may be paid at the market value of the fund's securities, which may be less than your book value balance. Certain investment options offered by your plan (e.g., money market funds, short term bond funds, certain asset allocation/lifecycle funds and brokerage window) may be deemed by the Contract issuers to "compete" with this fund. The terms of the Contracts prohibit you from making a direct exchange from this fund to such competing funds. Instead, you must first exchange to a non-competing fund for 90 days. While these requirements may seem restrictive, they are imposed by the Contract issuers as a condition for the issuer's promise to pay certain withdrawals and exchanges at book value.

Fund Risk: Foreign securities are subject to interest-rate, currency-exchange-rate, economic, and political risks, all of which may be magnified in emerging markets. PIMCO High Yield Fund Institutional Class

VRS Code: 93596

Fund Objective: The investment seeks maximum total return, consistent with preservation of capital and prudent investment management.

Fund Strategy: The fund invests at least 80% of its assets in a diversified portfolio of high yield securities ("junk bonds"), which may be represented by forwards or derivatives. It may invest up to 20% of its total assets in securities rated Caa or below by Moody's, or equivalently rated by S&P or Fitch, or, if unrated, determined by PIMCO to be of comparable quality. The fund may invest, without limitation, in derivative instruments.

Fund Risk: The fund may invest in lower-quality debt securities that involve greater risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. In general the bond market is volatile, and fixed income securities carry interest rate risk. (As interest rates rise, bond prices usually fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities.) Fixed income securities also carry inflation risk and credit and default risks for both issuers and counterparties. Unlike individual bonds, most bond funds do not have a maturity date, so avoiding losses caused by price volatility by holding them until maturity is not possible. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

SSgA Target Retirement 2015 Fund Account

VRS Code: 14167

Fund Objective: The accounts seek an investment return that approximates, as closely as practicable before expenses, the performance of a custom benchmark index (the "index") over the long term.

Fund Strategy: Each Fund seeks to achieve its objective by investing in a set of underlying SSgA collective trust funds representing various asset classes. Each Fund (other than the SSgA Target Retirement Income Fund) is managed to a specific retirement year (target date) included in its name.

Over time, the allocation to asset classes and funds change according to a predetermined "glide path". (The glide path represents the shifting of asset classes over time and does not apply to the Income Fund.) Each Fund's asset allocation will become more conservative as it approaches its target retirement date. This reflects the need for reduced investment risks as retirement approaches and the need for lower volatility of a portfolio, which may be a primary source of income after retiring. The allocations reflected in the glide path do not reflect tactical decisions made by SSgA to overweight or underweight a particular asset class based on its market outlook but rather management of each fund's strategic allocation according to its glide path and applicable benchmark. Each Fund attempts to closely match the characteristics and returns of its custom benchmark as opposed to any attempts to outperform this benchmark.

Once a Fund reaches its target retirement date, it will begin a five year transition period to the SSgA Target retirement Income Fund. At the end of that five year period the allocation to stocks, real estate investment trusts and commodities interests exposure will remain fixed at approximately 35% of assets. The remainder of the Fund will be invested in fixed-income securities.

Fund Risk: SSgA measures and adjusts each Fund's risk exposure over time given the Fund's target retirement date. SSgA monitors the overall risk of the Fund, in order to avoid unintended risk related to the Fund's target retirement date or other investment time horizon. SSgA attempts to manage risk by, among other things, monitoring asset allocations closely, maintaining diversification, and performing on-going investment reviews.

There are risks involved with investing, including possible loss of principal. Generally, among asset classes stocks are more volatile than bonds or short-term instruments. Asset Allocation is a method of diversification which positions assets among major investment categories. This method is used in an effort to manage risk and enhance returns. It does not, however, guarantee a profit or protect against loss.

Additionally, an investment in the Strategy is subject to a number of risks, which include but are not limited to: Asset Allocation Risk, Cash Position Risk, Commodities Risk, Conflict of Interest Risk, Counterparty Risk, Credit Risk, Currency Risk, Defensive Investing Risk, Derivatives Risk, Emerging Markets Risks, Equity Risk, Extension Risk, Geographic Concentration Risk, Index Risk, Interest Rate Risk, Investment Risk, Issuer Risk, Large Shareholder Risk, Leveraging Risk, Liquidity Risk, Longevity Risk, Lower-Rated Securities Risk, Market Capitalization Risk, Market Disruption and Geopolitical Risk, Market Risk, Modeling Risk, Mortgage-Related and Other Asset-Backed Securities Risk, Non-U.S. Securities Risk, Portfolio Turnover Risk, Prepayment Risk, Property Securities Risk, Re-Balancing Policy Risk, REIT and REOC Risk, Repurchase Agreement Risk, Risk of Investment in Other Pools, Small and Micro-Cap Companies Risk, Target Date Assumptions Risk, Tax Risk, U.S. Government Securities Risk, Valuation Risk, Variable and Floating Rate Securities Risk, and Wealth Accumulation Shortfall Risk. You should refer to the Fund's Disclosure Document for a complete description of the risks of investing in the Fund.

Risk management does not promise any level of performance or guarantee against loss of principal, including at or after the target dates or in the case of Income Account after retirement. SSgA encourages investors to seek the advice of well-qualified financial and tax advisors, accountants, attorneys and other professionals before making any investment or retirement decision.

Each Fund's asset allocation will become more conservative as it approaches its target retirement date. This reflects the need for reduced investment risks as retirement approaches and the need for lower volatility of a portfolio, which may be a primary source of income after retiring. The allocations reflected in the glide path do not reflect tactical decisions made by SSgA to overweight or underweight a particular asset class based on its market outlook but rather management of each fund's strategic allocation according to its glide path and applicable benchmark. Each Fund attempts to closely match the characteristics and returns of its custom benchmark as opposed to any attempts to outperform this benchmark.

Once a Fund reaches its target retirement date, it will begin a five year transition period to the SSgA Target retirement Income Fund. At the end of that five year period the allocation to stocks, real estate investment trusts and commodities interests exposure will remain fixed at approximately 35% of assets. The remainder of the Fund will be invested in fixed-income securities.

Fund Risk: SSgA measures and adjusts each Fund's risk exposure over time given the Fund's target retirement date. SSgA monitors the overall risk of the Fund, in order to avoid unintended risk related to the Fund's target retirement date or other investment time horizon. SSgA attempts to manage risk by, among other things, monitoring asset allocations closely, maintaining diversification, and performing on-going investment reviews.

There are risks involved with investing, including possible loss of principal. Generally, among asset classes stocks are more volatile than bonds or short-term instruments. Asset Allocation is a method of diversification which positions assets among major investment categories. This method is used in an effort to manage risk and enhance returns. It does not, however, guarantee a profit or protect against loss.

SSgA Target Retirement 2040 Fund Account

VRS Code: 14172

Fund Objective: The accounts seek an investment return that approximates, as closely as practicable before expenses, the performance of a custom benchmark index (the "index") over the long term.

Fund Strategy: Each Fund seeks to achieve its objective by investing in a set of underlying SSgA collective trust funds representing various asset classes. Each Fund (other than the SSgA Target Retirement Income Fund) is managed to a specific retirement year (target date) included in its name.

Over time, the allocation to asset classes and funds change according to a predetermined "glide path". Each Fund's asset allocation will become more conservative as it approaches its target retirement date. The allocations reflected in the glide path do not reflect tactical decisions made by SSgA to overweight or underweight a particular asset class based on its market outlook but rather management of each fund's strategic allocation according to its glide path and applicable benchmark. SSgA U.S. Bond Index Fund - Class P

Fund Objective: The SSgA U.S. Bond Index Fund (the "Fund") seeks an investment return that approximates as closely as practicable, before expenses, the performance of the Barclays Capital U.S. Aggregate Bond Index (the "Index") over the long term.

Fund Strategy: The Fund is managed using a "passive" or "indexing" investment approach, by which SSgA attempts to replicate, before expenses, the performance of the Index. The Fund may attempt to invest in the securities comprising the Index in the same proportions as they are represented in the Index. However, due to the large number of securities in the Index and the fact that many of the securities comprising the Index may be unavailable for purchase, it may not be possible for the Fund to purchase some of the securities comprising the Index. In such a case, SSgA will select securities for the Fund that SSgA believes will track the characteristics of the Index. The Fund's returns may vary from the returns of the Index.

Fund Risk: In general the bond market is volatile, and fixed income securities carry interest rate risk. (As interest rates rise, bond prices usually fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities.) Fixed income securities also carry inflation risk and credit and default risks for both issuers and counterparties. Unlike individual bonds, most bond funds do not have a maturity date, so avoiding losses caused by price volatility by holding them until maturity is not possible. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

What is the Roth Governmental 457(b) Contribution Option?

A Roth contribution is available to employees who participate in the governmental 457(b) plan. For payroll purposes Roth contributions are treated as after tax. This feature will allow participants to make Roth contributions to their plan while taking their earnings completely tax free at retirement—as long as the withdrawal is a qualified one. A qualified withdrawal is one that can be taken five tax years after the year of the first Roth contribution and after the participant has attained age 59½, has become disabled, or has died.

If you qualify to make traditional governmental 457(b) contributions, you are eligible for a Roth governmental 457(b) contribution.

How does a Roth governmental 457(b) contribution option work?

You elect a percentage (or dollar amount) of your salary that you wish to contribute to the Roth source, just as you would for your traditional governmental 457(b). The contribution is based on your eligible compensation, not on your net pay—for example, if your total annual eligible compensation is $40,000 per year and you elect a 6% deferral amount, then $2,400 per year would go into your Roth governmental 457(b) account.

Unlike your traditional governmental 457(b) pretax contribution, with a Roth governmental 457(b) contribution, you pay the taxes now on the contributions you make—but later your earnings are all tax free, if you meet certain criteria.

Example: Sally earns $40,000 and has elected to put 6% toward her Roth governmental 457(b) contributions and 6% toward her traditional governmental 457(b) pretax contributions on a monthly basis.

	ROTH GOVERNMENTAL 457(b)*	TRADITIONAL GOVERNMENTAL 457(b)*
Sally's monthly contribution into each account	$200	$200
Sally's reduction in take-home pay	$200	$150

*This hypothetical example is based solely on an assumed federal income tax rate of 25%. No other payroll deductions are taken into account. Your own results will be based on your individual tax situation.

Your combined Roth and traditional pretax governmental 457(b) contributions cannot exceed the IRS limits for the year.

Would a Roth governmental 457(b) contribution option benefit me?

The potential benefits of Roth governmental 457(b) contributions really depend on your personal situation, but are mainly focused on your existing tax rate and your anticipated tax rate at the time of retirement. If you are contributing to a Roth, you are giving up a tax break today for a tax break in the future.

Therefore, a Roth contribution might benefit you if your tax rate in retirement were higher than it had been during the years you contributed.

If your tax rate were lower in retirement, then a traditional governmental 457(b) might be more beneficial to you than the Roth option. Talk with a tax professional for more information on how to determine if Roth governmental 457(b) contributions are right for you.

Is a traditional pretax governmental 457(b) still beneficial?

Yes. For many participants a traditional pretax governmental 457(b) will still be the most beneficial type of retirement savings plan. We do not know what the future holds regarding tax rates. Therefore, it is not possible to predict with certainty which type of governmental 457(b) savings will be most beneficial to a participant.

Remember, because Roth governmental 457(b) contributions are made after tax, you may take home less money in your paycheck than you would if you contributed to a traditional pretax governmental 457(b).
