

Resolution No.: 17-604
Introduced: November 27, 2012
Adopted: November 27, 2012

COUNTY COUNCIL FOR MONTGOMERY COUNTY, MARYLAND

By: County Council

SUBJECT: Appointments to the Food Recovery Work Group

Background

1. Resolution No. 17-564 adopted on October 16, 2012, established the Food Recovery Work Group. The Food Recovery Work Group will develop a strategic plan and evaluate the costs associated with implementing a food recovery network that will collect and redirect good food that would otherwise go to waste to those in need.
2. The Council agreed that the Work Group membership will include representatives from the Department of Health and Human Services, the Office of Community Partnerships, the Agricultural Services Division of the Department of Economic Development, the Food Council, Montgomery County Public Schools, Manna Food Center, the Maryland Restaurant Association, non-profit organizations, local faith-based institutions, farms, supermarkets, universities, and advocacy groups focusing on gardening, nutrition, or ending hunger.
3. The Work Group may organize itself into subcommittees in order to complete the work requested by the Council that includes looking at best practices; mapping existing resources; identifying ways to enhance communication among non-profit organizations, services providers, and food suppliers; and recommending any needed legislative changes.
4. The Work Group will submit an interim report to the Council by March 31, 2013 and a final report by July 1, 2013.
