

You need to stop with the mandates. It has been proven that vaccinated people are still catching and spreading Coronavirus, so your restrictions are doing nothing but making it harder for local businesses to operate.

I will not comply with a Vaccine Passport. That is the most unamerican thing I have heard. You need to drop these Fascist requirements and allow residents to resume their lives. You are only making it harder to conduct business.

Kurt Marteney