

Data centers? "Lodging" in ag areas? Why can't they leave anything alone?

Maryland needs its countryside (what little there is left). We should be enacting permanent protections for wild spaces and agricultural areas, not selling them.

The Ag reserve is a special place, please let's keep it that way.