

Important Update: Working Parents Assistance Program Waitlist

Effective Date: Monday, September 9, 2024

Due to limited funding availability, the Montgomery County Department of Health and Human Services will be implementing a waitlist for the Working Parents Assistance Program. This waitlist will apply only to new applications for children aged 6 years and older.

What You Need to Know:

- Waitlist Start Date: September 9, 2024
- Who Is Affected: New applications for children 6 years and older.
- Current Participants: Families currently receiving assistance will not be affected by this change.
- Why This Is Happening: We are facing a shortfall in available funding, which impacts our ability to accept new applications for school age children. To manage our resources effectively, we are implementing this waitlist.
- Our Commitment: We are actively working to secure additional funding to support all families in need.

What You Can Do:

- Explore Other Resources: Our team is here to help you find alternative support options within the community.
- Stay Informed: We will provide updates on the funding situation and any changes to the waitlist status.
