FY23 Budget and New Position Requests: Prioritization and Collaboration

Berke Attila
Director, OHR

Office of Human Resources

What are Best Practices for New Positions?

- Don't wait until July 1st; ask your questions now.
- If you have more than two new positions, reach out to the OHR Recruitment Manager to discuss prioritized approach to prepare positions for recruitment.
- After prioritizing, OHR Recruiter and HR Liaison can meet to discuss recruitment timelines.
- If your department knows you have more than 10 new hires coming in the pipeline, let OMS know in advance, especially if exams need to be scheduled.
 - 30 days is best practice, but no fewer than 10 days of advance notice.
 - Make sure that the applicant has submitted any requested documentation in advance of clinic appointments.
 - Follow up and stay in touch throughout the process: OMS.Appt@montgomerycountymd.gov

Sick Leave: MCPR Definitions

- MCPR, Section 17-1 defines both sick leave and family sick leave.
- An employee uses sick leave for themselves and uses family sick leave to care for a member of their immediate family.
- MCPR, Section 1-32 lists the individuals who are part of an employee's immediate family.
- MCPR, Section 17-6 allows an employee to use approved sick leave that they have accrued to take care of personal illnesses and injuries; medical, dental, or optical appointments, medical quarantine and temporary disabilities. Sick leave can be used for FMLA.

Sick Leave: Collective Bargaining Agreements

- MCGEO Article 15 (c) and (d) allow parents of newborns and newly adopted children to take more sick leave than they have accrued in a leave year. Immediate family is also defined and can include others if the CAO approves.
- FOP Article 19 defines sick leave, the leave year, and accruals of sick leave. FOP Article 16 defines parental leave to allow an employee to use up to 720 hours of a combination of leave in a 24-month period.
- IAFF Article 7 defines sick leave and allows an employee to use sick leave to care for members of their immediate family. Again, the immediate family can include others if approved by the CAO.

Using Family Sick Leave: MCPR Overview

- MCPR, Section 17-7 lists the ways that family sick leave can be used. Like sick leave, an employee can use family sick leave when a member of their immediate family is ill, injured or medically quarantined or when their immediate family member has a medical, dental, or optical appointment.
- Employees use their sick leave for family sick leave purposes.
- Department managers approve the use of family sick leave.
- Family sick leave can be used when a birth or adoption takes place in the immediate family.

- An employee who is a parent of a newborn or newly adopted child may use more sick leave than the employee earns in a leave year when sick leave is taken as parental leave under Section 20 of these Regulations.
- The CAO may approve an employee's use of sick leave to care for a person who lives with the employee in the employee's residence if the person is either related to the employee by blood or marriage or has a close association with the employee that is the equivalent of a family relationship.
- Employees cannot use more leave than they accrue. An employee may request a waiver of this limitation; it must be approved by the CAO.

Family Sick Leave – Waiver Process

- MCPR 17-7 (c) The amount of family sick leave that an employee uses in a leave year must not be more than the amount of sick leave the employee earns in a leave year. An employee may request a waiver of this limitation from the CAO.
- FMLA and Family Sick Leave: FMLA kicks in after five workdays or more related to care of a family member. FMLA is processed through OMS.
- OMS has the information needed in order to support a waiver of use of more than 120 hours of sick leave.

Family Sick Leave – Waiver Process

- The employee requests the use of more than 120 hours to the department manager/supervisor.
- The department manager/supervisor or HR Liaison then makes the request in writing to OMS (sample memo linked here).
- OMS then makes the request to the CAO for approval on the employee's behalf.
- Once OMS has confirmed and the CAO has approved, then a response to the request is sent back to the department who will then communicate with MCTime that the additional (above 120) hours have been approved.
