

The Arc Montgomery County

Nominating Ms. Favali to Board of Directors for two-year term and noting “lives in Hyattsville, MD”

Board of Directors
Connecting People of All Ages and Abilities to Build Inclusive Lives

The Arc
Montgomery County

Nominations for FY2023 Board of Directors
All nominations are for a single two-year term

Constance Battle is a retired developmental pediatrician and former CIO of the Hospital for Sick Children and a transition hospital for children with severe disabilities. She is also a former Trustee of the National Center for Special Education. She holds a Master of Science in Special Education, a Master of Public Health, and a Ph.D. in Public Health. She lives in Potomac, MD. Nominated for first term on board.

Senolisa Edwards Heron is the founder and Executive Director of Freedom Heirs Foundation, a nonprofit organization which promotes and enhances the prominence, profitability, and sustainability of Black Americans in agriculture. She holds a Master of Science in Agricultural Science from Mississippi State University. Ms. Edwards-Heron is the parent of a daughter with special needs. Nominated for second consecutive term on board.

Flavia Favali is the founder of Haven Share, Inc. which provides young adults with a secure housing environment where they can mature and grow into adulthood. She is a former Prince George's County Public Schools teacher. Ms. Favali holds an MA in Transitional Special Education with an emphasis in Acquired Brain Injury from The George Washington University and lives in Hyattsville, MD. Nominated for second consecutive term on board.

Stephanie Hays is the President and CEO of Maryland Print & Design, LLC, a Woman-Owned Minority business. She has a variety of roles including marketing and management. Ms. Hays holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Frostburg State University and lives in Columbia, MD. Nominated for first term on board.

Julie Wang is a seasoned education professional, spending more than 10 years in Montgomery County Public Schools. She is the founder of the Village Initiative to connect special education families with both nonprofit and school services. Ms. Wang holds a Master of Education from the University of Hawaii and lives in Potomac, MD. Nominated for first term on board.

Christina Young is a Senior Business Analyst in the Aerospace Medicine Finance and Budget Division of the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA). She has 35 years of combined federal services with the FAA, the Department of Defense, and the Department of State. She holds a Master of Science in Public Administration from National Defense University and an M.Ed. from The George Washington University. She lives in McLean, VA. Nominated for first term on board.

Nominations by Board Officers Positions
Constance Battle for President (to complete the final year of Eugene Marc, Jr.'s term)
Current Board Members contributing to their second year of a two-year term (end date of the election):
Katherine O'Connell, Allen O'Hara, John O'Neill, Mark Rittenberg, James Seaton

Nominations for The Arc Montgomery County FY2023 Board of Directors were prepared from applications received through April 15, per the organization's bylaws. These applications were vetted by the Governance Committee.

Boards will be cast and tabulated electronically. Voting is restricted to current members of The Arc Montgomery County. Election results will be announced at the membership meeting on Wednesday, June 29, 2022 at 7 pm.

301.804.5777 | 7352 Calhoun Place, Rockville, MD 20855 | www.TheArcMontgomeryCounty.org

Flavia Favali is the founder of Haven Share, Inc. which provides young adults with a secure housing environment where they can mature and grow into adulthood. She is a former Prince George's County Public Schools teacher. Ms. Favali holds an MA in Transitional Special Education with an emphasis in Acquired Brain Injury from The George Washington University and lives in Hyattsville, MD. Nominated for second consecutive term on Board