Study on Asian American, Native Hawaiian, Pacific (AANHPI) community health needs in the Greater DC region

George Washington University School of Medicine/Medical Faculty Associates in partnership with OCA Greater Washington DC, APA Advocates (OCA-DC) is studying the health needs of local Asian American, Native Hawaiian, and Pacific Islanders (AANHPI) in the Greater DC region. We hope to understand what health needs are of our local communities in order to better develop community health efforts locally.

Eligibility Criteria

- Age 18 or older
- Live in Washington DC, Maryland, or Northern Virginia
- Identify as Asian American, Native Hawaiian, or Pacific Islander
