

Leaders Ending Violence

Inspiring change-makers to build communities
and resources that end violence.

Leaders Ending Violence

About Us

- Leaders Ending Violence (LEV) was created to offer training and consulting services that build the capacity of organizations to develop sustainable programs that inspire change and end violence.
- Through a community and survivor-centered lens, (LEV) bridges the gap between programs and people. Ensuring that practical and innovative resources are created with a deep understanding of authenticity and diverse realities of communities.

Services

Core Offerings

- Training and Consulting
- Youth Leadership
- Community Awareness
- Program Planning
- Resource Development

Join Let's Be Real

- Let's Be Real is a former project of Break the Cycle. It launched as a movement and opportunity for youth everywhere to build community and raise awareness of relationship violence.
- As a result of Break the Cycle ending its national programs Leaders Ending Violence will support the initiatives of youth leaders across the country through their social media activism and ongoing resource development.
- Youth leaders can join the movement by leading national "Real Talks" and creating resources for their peers online and in person.
- Message us on Instagram @LBRYouth to learn more.

Jasmine Ceja Uribe Founder & Senior Consultant

Phone: (323) 596 -7354

Address: PO BOX 116 Baldwin Park, CA 91706

Website: leadersendingviolence.com

Instagram: @leaders_ending_violence

Twitter: @leadersEV

#LeadersEndingViolence

Let's Be Real - Youth Project

Instagram: @lbryouth

#LetsBeReal

