

March 6, 2015

Quick Links

PTI Smart Cities & Counties Summit: A Roadmap for a Bright Sustainable Future

PTI's Annual Solutions Awards Competition Now Accepting Applications from Local and State Government

Prestigious Certified Government CIO Program Coming to the West Coast! Apply now!

Stay Connected

Like us on Facebook

Follow @public\_tech

 Send to a Colleague

The PTI Board of Directors recognizes the following state and local government representatives who have received the 2015 PTI GIS Vision Award.

This prestigious annual award is presented to outstanding individuals who have contributed to advancing enterprise-wide GIS, articulated a clear vision and recognized innovation, demonstrated leadership, and served as a spokesperson/champion for the use of GIS across and within the city, county or State.

The 2015 PTI GIS Vision Award Winners are:

Local Government Recipients:

- Mark Greninger, Los Angeles County, CA
- Twyla McDermott, City of Charlotte, NC
- Dave Shuey, Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana (OKI) Council of Governments
- Christine Grimmelsman, City of Cincinnati, OH
- Apollo Teng, Montgomery County, MD
- Betsi Chatham, City of Fort Worth, TX
- Edward Dadosky, City of Cincinnati, OH

State Recipients:

- Philip Weinbach, State of South Carolina
- Richard Butgereit, State of Florida

"Our 2015 GIS Vision Award Winners understand how to better serve and protect the public, and to enhance real-time decision-making using GIS tools and data. They are true visionaries and their efforts deserved to be recognized," said Dr. Alan Shark, Executive Director of PTI.

PTI congratulates each recipient for his or her extraordinary leadership and vision!