

Montgomery County Office of Human Rights, Human Rights Commission, Commission for Women, Department of Police, and the Committee Against Hate Violence Present

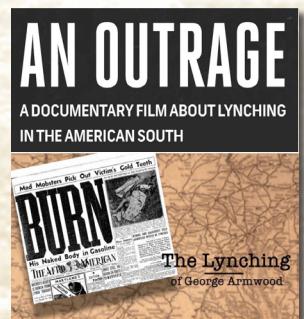

FILM SCREENING AND COMMUNITY TOWN HALL

Remembering the Past To Protect the Future

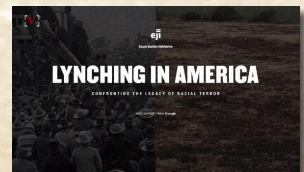

“This Little Light of Mine:”
The Legacy of Fannie Lou Hamer

“An Outrage”
Lynching in the American South

“Lynching in America”
Confronting the legacy of racial terror

Films begin promptly at 7:05 p.m. Followed by a community panel discussion on understanding our history.

Wednesday, August 7, 2019

6:45 p.m.

Silver Spring Civic Building
1 Veterans Place
Silver Spring, MD 20910

Light refreshments served

More information, 240-777-8450

SAVE
THE DATE!

