

LAC Report-April 2019

Collection

VOX books have been added to the collection and have been well circulated since they arrived in the branch at the beginning of March.

Glenstone catalogs have been added to the reference collection and are display with the reference material.

Transfer process to be implemented system-wide in Sept.

Facilities

Programming

Highlights-

Ozobots in the Library-March20th

Medicare Demystified- March 28th

Upcoming-

Author Visit: Miranda Mittleman & her dog Weaver- April 6 @ 3:15- Miranda writes the PAWS and THINK!Z children's book series.

STEM petting Zoo-April 17 @ 4-Introducing several STEM activities for children.

Animals, Textures & Colors –April 18 @ 10:30-Live animal presentation

Panda Karate-May 4 @ 1-Self defense for children

Joey Meet and Greet- May 16 @ 11---Kangaroo visit

Summer Reading programs have been planned through August, as well.

Services

The volunteer coordinator is pulling applications of volunteers who communicate technology skills to be trained on accessing and borrowing e-books. Once trained, e-book drop-ins times will be added to branch services.