

Understanding Structural Racism in Montgomery County

Understanding Structural Racism in Montgomery County will help us understand how our daily lives are impacted by racial inequities and how we can tackle them in our communities and government.

Advancing Racial Equity: The Role of Government is a prerequisite for this class.

Time: All of the trainings are 3 hours, from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm.

Dates:

April 9, 2024 | May 9, 2024 | June 26, 2024

Please note: This class is replacing 'The Groundwater Approach' (TGA). If you have already completed TGA, you do not need to take this class. We are only offering this class via Zoom. There will be a class break, and you are welcome to eat lunch during the session.

To register: Log on to the AccessMCG ePortal and go to Employee Self Service, then Learner Home. Under the Search field "Class," enter the keywords "Understanding Structural Racism."
